MTC Honors top Job Corps employees

Annual Celebrating Excellence awards and cash prizes presented to quality staff members nationwide

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – June 11, 2009

(CENTERVILLE, Utah) – Utah-based Management & Training Corporation (MTC) – the leading privately-contracted operator of federal Job Corps Centers across the United States – is proud to honor its top employees each year with the company’s Celebrating Excellence awards.

“We are very pleased with the high quality people we employ at each of our Job Corps centers,” said MTC President Scott Marquardt. “It is an honor to celebrate their contributions to MTC’s success each year, through our Celebrating Excellence awards.”

2009 Celebrating Excellence Award Winners

Administrative Support Services Employee of the Year – Vicki Wesley – Atlanta Job Corps Center

Educator of the Year – Arthur DeLima Jr. – Hawaii Job Corps Center

OA/CTS Staff Member of the Year – Edward Lane – Philadelphia Life Sciences Institute

Social Development Employee of the Year – Cindy Schroeder – Denison Job Corps Center (IA)

In addition to honoring outstanding employees each year, MTC also honors an individual or organization within the community for its outstanding contribution to the Job Corps center in its area:

Community Supporter of the Year – Union County Advocate Newspaper – Earle C. Clements Job Corps Academy (KY)

Each honoree receives a certificate of appreciation, trophy and $500.

In addition to these honorees, four outstanding Job Corps students have also earned $1000 Celebrating Excellence scholarships. This year’s scholarship award winners attend Gary (TX), Paul Simon Chicago (IL), Philadelphia and Sierra Nevada (NV) Job Corps Centers.

Management & Training Corporation operates – or partners in the operation of – 26 Job Corps centers across the United States. MTC also operates 16 private correctional facilities in five states. MTC presents Celebrating Excellence awards to the top employees in its corrections division as well.
