MTC honors top Corrections employees

Annual Celebrating Excellence awards and cash prizes presented to outstanding staff members nationwide

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – June 24, 2009

(CENTERVILLE, Utah) – Utah-based Management & Training Corporation (MTC) – one of the world’s leading private operators of correctional facilities – is proud to honor its top employees each year with the company’s Celebrating Excellence awards. Each honoree receives a certificate of appreciation, trophy and $500.

“We are very pleased with the high quality people we employ at each of our correctional facilities,” said MTC President Scott Marquardt. “It is an honor to celebrate their contributions to MTC’s success each year, through our Celebrating Excellence awards.”

2009 Celebrating Excellence Award Winners

Correctional Officer of the Year – Sonia Garcia – Willacy County (TX) Processing Center

Medical Employee of the Year – Stephanie Lacy – Taft (CA) Correctional Institution

Program Services Staff Member of the Year – Phillip Yocum – Taft (CA) Correctional Institution

Support Services Staff Member of the Year – Larry McPheron – Otero County (NM) Prison Facility

In addition to honoring outstanding employees each year, Management & Training Corporation also honors individuals or an organization within the community for outstanding contributions to the correctional facility in its area. In this category the 2009 winner is:

Community Supporters of the Year – Nick and Sue Petti – Volunteer Coordinators,
Toastmasters International – Lake Erie (OH) Correctional Institution

Management & Training Corporation operates 16 private correctional facilities across the United States. MTC is also the leading privately-contracted operator of federal Job Corps centers as well. MTC operates – or partners in the operation of – 26 Job Corps centers.

MTC also presents Celebrating Excellence awards to the top employees in its Job Corps division. Additionally, the company presents $1000 educational awards to three outstanding Job Corps students, through the Celebrating Excellence Scholar of the Year awards.
