MTC Honors top Job Corps employees

Annual Celebrating Excellence awards and cash prizes presented to quality staff members nationwide

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – July 17, 2007

(CENTERVILLE, Utah) – Utah-based Management & Training Corporation (MTC) – the leading privately-contracted operator of federal Job Corps Centers across the United States – is proud to honor its top employees each year with the company’s Celebrating Excellence awards.

“We are very pleased with the high quality people we employ at each of our Job Corps centers,” said MTC President Scott Marquardt. “It is an honor to celebrate their contributions to MTC’s success each year, through our Celebrating Excellence awards.”

2007 Celebrating Excellence Award Winners

Educator of the Year – Kathi Kelley – Cincinnati Job Corps Center (OH)

Group Life Staff Member of the Year – Barbara Ellison – Westover Job Corps Center (Chicopee, MA)

OA/CTS Staff Member of the Year – Bobby Graham – Wilmington Job Corps Center (DE)

Support Services Staff Member of the Year – Julie Dugan – Hawaii Job Corps Center

In addition to honoring outstanding employees each year, Management & Training Corporation also honors an individual or organization within the community for its outstanding contribution to the Job Corps center in its area. In this category the 2007 winner is:

Community Supporter of the Year – Astoria Fire Department – Tongue Point Job Corps Center (OR)

Each honoree receives a certificate of appreciation, trophy and $500. In addition to these honorees, three outstanding Job Corps Students have also earned $1000 Celebrating Excellence scholarships. This year’s scholarship award winners attend Charleston (WV), Paul Simon Chicago (IL) and Springdale (OR) Job Corps Centers.

Management & Training Corporation operates – or partners in the operation of – 25 Job Corps centers across the United States. MTC also operates 12 private correctional facilities in the U.S. and Australia. MTC presents Celebrating Excellence awards to the top employees in its corrections division as well.
