

North Coast CTF to host annual media day

August 21, 2009 – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(GRAFTON, Ohio) – The many types of offender programming available to inmates at the North Coast Correctional Treatment Facility (NCCTF) will be highlighted during the institution’s annual Media Day, Monday, August 31, 2009.

“We are proud of the many services our facility offers to our inmates, as they rehabilitate and move toward re-entry into the community,” said North Coast CTF Warden Hector Santiago. “We feel it is important to keep our local members of the media up to date on the successful work being done here each day. We look forward to hosting the media again, and answering any questions they may have about the service North Coast CTF provides.”

WHAT: North Coast Correctional Treatment Facility Media Day. A rehabilitation course entitled Thinking for a Change will be one of the several inmate programs described in detail during the event.

WHEN: Monday, August 31, 2009, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon. A continental breakfast will be provided, and attendees will have the opportunity to tour the facility.

WHO: North Coast Correctional Treatment Facility Warden Hector Santiago will welcome the media by giving an overview of the facility. Media members will also have the opportunity to meet other staff members to learn about the services provided at the prison.

WHERE: North Coast Correctional Treatment Facility
2000 S. Avon Belden Road
Grafton, Ohio 44044

For more information about Management & Training Corporation please visit www.mtctrains.com.
For more information on the Ohio Dept. of Rehabilitation and Correction visit www.drc.state.oh.us.

For more information, contact:

Deborah Hill, Administrative Assistant and PIO
440-748-5000 or DHill@mtctrains.com