DJCC Operator Presents Student Scholarship

MTC presents $1000 to Medhanie Kifle for his future educational pursuits

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – August 7, 2006

(DAYTON, Ohio) – Utah-based Management & Training Corporation (MTC) – operator of the Dayton Job Corps Center – has selected student Medhanie Kifle to receive a $1000 scholarship to continue his educational pursuits. Kifle was nominated for the corporate scholarship by Dayton Center Director Charles Howard and Facility Maintenance Supervisor Edward Cobb.

“We are very pleased to present this financial assistance to Mr. Kifle,” said MTC President Scott Marquardt. “He represents the kind of motivated and determined student who will certainly be a success after graduating from the Job Corps program. Management & Training Corporation is proud to serve thousands of quality students at the Job Corps centers we operate throughout the United States. We wish Medhanie all our best and look forward to hearing good things about him in the years to come.”

Mr. Kifle started at the Dayton Job Corps Center in May 2004 after arriving in the United States from his home country of Eritrea, in eastern Africa. Since his enrollment in Job Corps he has completed the Phlebotomy program, enrolled and is participating in the Advance Career Training Program and holds down an on-center job. Kifle is also currently attending Sinclair Community College.

Medhanie Kifle’s scholarship is one of three presented annually to Management & Training Corporation Job Corps students. The other two 2006 recipients attend Brunswick (Georgia) and Tongue Point (Oregon) Job Corps Centers. Additionally, MTC also honors several employees and community partners annually, through its “Celebrating Excellence” awards program.

Management & Training Corporation operates – or partners in the operation of – 25 Job Corps centers across the United States. MTC also operates 13 correctional facilities in the United States, Canada and Australia.
