TPJCC Operator Presents Student Scholarship

MTC presents $1000 to Taylor Keith for her future educational pursuits

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – August 7, 2006

(ASTORIA, Oregon) – Utah-based Management & Training Corporation (MTC) – operator of the Tongue Point Job Corps Center – has selected student Taylor Keith to receive a $1000 scholarship to continue her educational pursuits. Keith was nominated for the corporate scholarship by Tongue Point Center Director Nancy Pyburn and three of her instructors.

“We are very pleased to present this financial assistance to Ms. Keith,” said MTC President Scott Marquardt. “She represents the kind of motivated and determined student who will certainly be a success after graduating from the Job Corps program. Management & Training Corporation is proud to serve thousands of quality students at the Job Corps centers we operate throughout the United States. We wish Taylor all our best and look forward to hearing good things about her in the years to come.”

Ms. Keith started at the Tongue Point Job Corps Center in September 2005, having already earned her GED. She accelerated through the Health Occupations vocation, completing it in November 2005. She then completed the Certified Nursing Assistant Program in March 2006. Now Ms. Keith is enrolled in the Advanced Career Training program, where she is working toward becoming an LPN.

Now a student at Clatsop Community College in Astoria, Taylor was recently selected to serve as that school’s student body Secretary / Treasurer. She will begin that position in the fall.

Ms. Keith’s scholarship is one of three presented annually to Management & Training Corporation Job Corps students. The other two 2006 recipients attend Brunswick (Georgia) and Dayton (Ohio) Job Corps Centers. Additionally, MTC also honors several employees and community partners annually, through its “Celebrating Excellence” awards program.

In addition to operating – or partnering in the operation of – 25 federal Job Corps centers, MTC also operates 13 correctional facilities in the United States, Canada and Australia.
