

Workforce in the News:

The economic downturn has brought new attention and focus to workforce and job training needs. Here are a few items that MTC and would like to share with you (click on the hyper-link title to read):

[From The Washington Post,
May 4, 2009 – skills training for college graduates in India](#)

And MTC had the opportunity to hear Paul Collier at the State Department's TED conference – it's all about jobs, jobs, jobs.....

From "Business Intelligence Middle East," May 14, 2009 – an excellent read about unemployment among Arab youth

And lastly, from "The Economist," March 13, 2009 – the cover article on jobs

Save the Date!

MTC's International Workforce Speaker Series Starts on July 15, 6:00 pm

On July 15, 2009, MTC will launch a speaker series on international workforce development. Please join the staff of MTC's International Department at the Army and Navy Club in Washington, D.C. for an engaging address by Ambassador Mark Dybul, with the O'Neill Institute for National and Global Health Law, Georgetown University. Ambassador Dybul will speak on human resources for health followed by a discussion led by Jane Marquardt, MTC's Vice Chairman of the Board. Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres will be served.

If you would like to attend, please RSVP via email to rsvpd@mtctrains.com Seating is limited.

The Army and Navy Club is located on Farragut Square, 901 17th Street, NW in Washington, D.C. Metro stops are Farragut North on the red line and Farragut West on the blue and orange lines.

This will be the first in a series of talks by thought leaders regarding international workforce development trends. Future discussions are

New from MTC:

Our Response to the Human Resources for Health Crisis:

<http://www.mtctrains.com/workforce/publications.php>

To Learn About MTC's International Workforce Programs:

<http://www.mtctrains.com/workforce/international.php>

