

Workforce in the News:

Skill Flow and Worker Mobility Working Paper from the Center for Global Development:

[http://www.cgdev.org/
content/publications/
detail/1422684](http://www.cgdev.org/content/publications/detail/1422684)

Help that Helps from Nick Eberstadt and Carol Adelman, courtesy of AEI:

[http://www.aei.org/
article/100935](http://www.aei.org/article/100935)

Are You Interested in All Things Africa?

If so, please join MTC's Director of International Marketing, Jocelyn Rowe on either September 15 or 22 to help plan future sessions of the Society for International Development's Africa Work Group.

For further details and to RSVP for the brown bag sessions, as well as the next Africa Work Group event on October 1 with William Garvelink, US Ambassador to the Democratic Republic of the Congo, please visit the SID Washington web page: www.sidw.org

Save the Date! MTC's International Workforce Speaker Series October 21, 6:00 pm

We kick off our speaker series this fall with Andrew S. Natsios, Distinguished Professor, Walsh School of Foreign Service, Georgetown University, and former USAID Administrator, for a discussion on workforce and stabilization activities. Please join us on Wednesday, October 21 at 6 pm at the Army-Navy Club in Washington, D.C. for this lively exchange with Jane Marquardt, Vice Chair of Management & Training Corporation's Board of Directors. Professor Natsios will speak on workforce and stabilization. Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres will be served.

If you would like to attend, please RSVP via email to rsvpdc@mtctrains.com Seating is limited.

The first in our international workforce speaker series occurred on July 15 with Ambassador Mark Dybul. To view his presentation on human resources for health, please go to the following link:

<http://www.mtctrains.com/workforce/publications.php>

The Army and Navy Club is located on Farragut Square, 901 17th Street, NW in Washington, D.C. Metro stops are Farragut North on the red line and Farragut West on the blue and orange lines.

New from MTC--Country Project Profiles: China, Iraq, Mongolia, Southern Sudan, Tunisia

To view the profiles and learn more about MTC's international workforce programs, please visit:

<http://www.mtctrains.com/workforce/international.php>