MTC is committed to being a good neighbor and investing in the local community

MTC is proud to be a part of the community in Rusk County. Staff and inmates volunteer both time and money in the community, working with various non-profit organizations and other groups that benefit the local community. Representatives from local government, business, and civic organizations serve on the facility’s community relations council. Facility leaders share important updates and collaborate on issues important to the community.

“All they do is help the economy, and they help the city, and they help the county.”

Buzz Fullen, Henderson City Mayor, March 2019

“I want to be able to give back to the community to help people out whenever they can’t do it themselves. And it’s something that I can do from here.”

~ George Helms, Billy Moore Correctional Center, May 2018
