MTC prepares incarcerated women to successfully return to their communities
Nearly all of the women incarcerated at Gadsden Correctional Facility will eventually be released. It’s MTC’s responsibility to provide a wide range of educational, vocational, substance abuse, cognitive behavioral, and life skills programs to prepare these women to successfully return to their communities.

Gadsden Correctional Facility contributes significantly to the local economy

Gadsden Correctional Facility strives to be a leader in social impact

133,270 service hours donated by staff and incarcerated women to improve local communities and aid in the rehabilitation of those who are incarcerated
Provided 1,356,598 hours of effective programs, courses, and activities including adult basic education, GED, addiction recovery, and re-entry
Awarded 191 certificates in educational, career training, substance abuse treatment, and life skills programs

Gadsden Correctional Facility has achieved nationally-recognized corrections, education, and safety accreditations
Gadsden Correctional Facility is accredited by the American Correctional Association—achieving 100% compliance for both mandatory and non-mandatory standards in its most recent audit. Other accreditations and certifications include the Correctional Education Association and the Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA).

MTC is committed to being a good neighbor and investing in the local community

MTC is proud to be a part of the community in Gadsden County. Staff and inmates volunteer both time and money in the community, working with various non-profit organizations and other groups that benefit the local community. Representatives from local government, business, and civic organizations serve on the facility’s community relations council. Facility leaders share important updates and collaborate on issues important to the community.

“This facility has been an excellent model for rehabilitation and change. I’ve visited the prison and seen firsthand how staff are not only committed to safety and security but to inmate rehabilitation.”

~ Sherrie Taylor, Gadsden County Commissioner, April 2019

“I’ve grown as a person...I never thought that an experience like this would make you grow and look at things differently. I’m experiencing things that I would never experience any other way”

~ Kristi Coffey, resident and MTC Glee Club Member, Gadsden Correctional Facility, March 2019
