MTC prepares incarcerated men to successfully return to their communities

Nearly all of the men incarcerated at Giles W. Dalby Correctional Facility will eventually be released. It’s MTC’s responsibility to provide a wide range of educational, vocational, substance abuse, cognitive behavioral, and life skills programs to prepare these men to successfully return to their communities.

Giles W. Dalby Correctional Facility contributes significantly to the local economy

Staff employed: 318
County revenue: $1,415,364
Local spend: $2,544,018

Giles W. Dalby Correctional Facility strives to be a leader in social impact

1,807 service hours donated by staff and incarcerated men to improve local communities and aid in the rehabilitation of those who are incarcerated

Provided 908,403 hours of effective programs, courses, and activities including adult basic education, GED, addiction recovery, and re-entry

Awarded 723 certificates in educational, career training, substance abuse treatment, and life skills programs

Giles W. Dalby Correctional Facility has achieved nationally-recognized corrections, education, healthcare, and safety accreditations

Giles W. Dalby Correctional Facility is accredited by the American Correctional Association—achieving over 99% compliance for both mandatory and non-mandatory standards in its most recent audit. Other accreditations and certifications include the Correctional Education Association, Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations, and the Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA).

Rehabilitation Programs

Education
• Adult Basic Education
• General Education Development
• English as Second Language
• INEA Courses

Vocation
• Auto CAD
• Building Trades
• Electrical Trades
• Entrepreneurship & Small Business
• OpenOffice Computer Apps

Substance Abuse
• Foundations for a Drug Free World

Life Skills
• Choice and Change
• Financial Peace University
• Inside Out Dads
• SAMHSA Anger Management
• Thinking for Good

Therapy
• Individual Counseling
• Victim Impact

Religious
• Bible Study
• Purpose Driven Life
• Recreation/other
• Hobby Crafts
• Leather Craft
MTC is committed to being a good neighbor and investing in the local community

MTC is proud to be a part of the community in Garza County. Staff and inmates volunteer both time and money in the community, working with various non-profit organizations and other groups that benefit the local community. Representatives from local government, business, and civic organizations serve on the facility’s community relations council. Facility leaders share important updates and collaborate on issues important to the community.

Community Relations Council

- Judge Lee Norman
  Garza County

- Deana Smith
  Post City Manager

- Jana Bullard
  Post Chamber of Commerce, Board Member

- Chair Terry Bartlett
  Post Economic Development

“I think the Giles W. Dalby Correctional Facility in Post, TX is a great example of the way a [correctional] center should be run.”

~ Lee Norman, Garza County Judge, April 2019

“I like the program because it makes me feel positive about doing something good for the community…and makes me feel productive.”

~ Jaime Navarro-Sanchez, resident, Giles W. Dalby Correctional Facility, speaking about a program where inmates make dog collars and leashes for an animal refuge, January 2019