MTC is committed to being a good neighbor and investing in the local community

MTC is proud to be a part of the community in Ada County. Staff and inmates volunteer both time and money in the community, working with various non-profit organizations and other groups that benefit the local community. Representatives from local government, business, and civic organizations serve on the facility’s community relations council. Facility leaders share important updates and collaborate on issues important to the community.

“This facility has been an excellent model for rehabilitation and change. I’ve visited the prison and seen firsthand how staff are not only committed to safety and security but to inmate rehabilitation.”

~ Stephen Cordon, volunteer, Idaho CAPP Facility, April 2019

“I think they give us plenty of options to try to better ourselves and some flexibility in that. And if one wants to succeed in life, there’s plenty of resources here to do it of your own accord.”

~ Justin Landry, resident, Idaho CAPP Facility, January 2018
