MTC prepares incarcerated men to successfully return to their communities

Nearly all of the men incarcerated at Kyle Correctional Center will eventually be released. It's MTC’s responsibility to provide a wide range of educational, vocational, substance abuse, cognitive behavioral, and life skills programs to prepare these men to successfully return to their communities.

Kyle Correctional Center contributes significantly to the local economy

This facility has actually taught me a lot. It’s taught me more about patience and tolerance; how to judge. My cognitive thinking came up to keep me from relapsing again. It’s changed my life in the way where I can make better decisions. And I believe I can see my future a little bit brighter than I once saw it, you know?”
