MTC is committed to being a good neighbor and investing in the local community

MTC is proud to be a part of the community in Marion County. Staff and inmates volunteer both time and money in the community, working with various non-profit organizations and other groups that benefit the local community. Representatives from local government, business, and civic organizations serve on the facility’s community relations council. Facility leaders share important updates and collaborate on issues important to the community.

“This facility has been an excellent model for rehabilitation and change. I’ve visited the prison and seen firsthand how staff are not only committed to safety and security but to inmate rehabilitation.”

~ Becky Magrum – Volunteer, April 2019

“When the staff here see hard effort, they recognize that effort and get us through the programs we are trying to take... I have a new sense of direction in my life. I am currently a program aide and have the daily opportunity and satisfaction [of] helping other inmates.”

~ Joseph Ellis, resident, North Central Correctional Complex, October 2018
