Mission Statement

Giving people hope, skills, and opportunities for a better life.

MTC Prepares Detainees to Successfully Return to Their Communities

The men detained at IAH Detention Facility will eventually be released. It's MTC's responsibility to ensure these individuals have access to necessary services while they're in the facility including healthcare, court and legal resources, visitation, recreation, and educational programs when possible.

The MTC Difference in Detention

MTC is committed to providing high-quality programming to detainees. MTC has decades of experience providing education and training for disadvantaged populations and takes this wealth of experience to the operation of detention facilities. Programming helps detainees to prepare to transition back into their communities and make the most of their time in detention.

Hiring and Supporting the Local Community

Dedicated employees preparing detainees for re-entry

$1,456,631
spent supporting local businesses

The facility provided 53,476 hours of effective programs, courses, and activities including religious and recreation.

MTC is Committed to Being a Good Neighbor and Investing in the Local Community

MTC is proud to be a part of the community in Livingston. Several community volunteers offer their time and services to bring hope, encouragement, and support to the men and women at the IAH Detention Facility. These volunteers are vital to the center's efforts to provide a compassionate and caring environment to the people we serve. Representatives from local government, business, and civic organizations serve on the center's community relations council. Center leaders share important updates and collaborate on issues important to the community.

Nationally-Recognized Corrections and Safety Accreditations

IAH Detention Facility is accredited by the American Correctional Association—achieving over 99% compliance for both mandatory and non-mandatory standards in its most recent audit.
