- D. The term "Contractor" and/or "Seller" means the individual, partnership, corporation, or association contracting with MTC hereunder to furnish the article(s) and/or service(s) described in the contract.

2. CONTRACT

The provisions of this contract constitute the complete and exclusive agreement between the parties hereto and supersede all previous communications, representations, or agreements, whether oral or written, between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof; and no agreement or understanding varying or extending the terms and conditions of this contract will be binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized MTC representative. If any term in Seller's agreements or documents is contrary to the terms of this contract, this contract is controlling. This shall become a binding contract on the terms and conditions set forth herein, when it is accepted by Contractor, either by acknowledgement or commencement of performance. Contractor agrees at all times to comply with all applicable state, federal, and local laws.

3. MASTER CONTRACT

This Contract is subject to the contract between the Texas Department of Criminal Justice ("TDCJ") and Management & Training Corporation (the "Master Contract"). The Contractor agrees to comply with the terms of the Master Contract to the extent applicable with respect to goods and services being provided under this Contract. The Department's approval of a subcontract does not relieve the Contractor of its duty to perform under the Master Contract. It is the intention of the parties that Subcontractor shall stand in the shoes of Management & Training Corporation with respect to fulfilling the duties and obligations of Management & Training Corporation to TDCJ under the Master Contract.

4. MATERIAL

The material called for in the contract shall be packed in accordance with standard commercial practices unless otherwise stated in the contract.

6. INVOICES AND PAYMENT

Contractor shall prepare at the time of shipment full and complete invoices of the goods sold and shall deliver a copy of said invoice by mail or otherwise to MTC. Contractor shall be paid in accordance with the terms of the contract, upon the submission of said invoices at the prices stipulated in the contract for material delivered and accepted, or services rendered and accepted. For purposes of discounts the effective date of the invoice shall be construed to be the date of receipt of the goods and actual acceptance at MTC (or such other destination as designated in the contract schedule) or the date of receipt by MTC of Contractor's acceptable invoice, whichever occurs later.

7. DELIVERIES, OVERAGES AND EXTRAS

Deliveries are to be made both in quantities and at the time and method specified in the contract or modification thereof. MTC will have no liability for payment for material or items delivered to MTC which are in excess of quantity specified in the delivery schedules, unless such excess is agreed upon by MTC in writing by an authorized Procurement representative. Except as otherwise provided in the contract, no payment for extras shall be made unless such extras and the price therefore have been authorized in writing by an authorized MTC representative.

8. WARRANTY

Contractor expressly warrants that all the material covered by the contract which is the product of Contractor or is in accordance with Contractor's specifications will be fit and sufficient for the purpose intended. The foregoing warranties are in addition to all other warranties, whether expressed or implied. The provisions of this clause shall not limit or affect the rights of MTC under the clause hereof entitled "INSPECTION." All warranties shall run to MTC and its customers.

9. INSPECTION AND TITLE PASSAGE

A. Final inspection and acceptance of items delivered thereunder shall be made after delivery at the MTC designated point, notwithstanding any prior payment or inspection.

B. Title to all supplies and/or work provided under the contract shall vest in MTC at the F. O. Contractor agrees that, unless otherwise indicated in the contract, (a) the prices therein do not include any state or local sales, use or other tax from which an exemption is available for purposes of the contract under Public Law 105-220, and (b) the prices herein include all other applicable federal, state, and local taxes in effect at the date of this contract. In the event it shall ever be determined that any tax included in the prices therein was not required to be paid by Contractor, Contractor agrees to notify MTC and to make prompt application for the refund thereof, to take all proper steps to procure the refund and when received to pay the same to MTC. It is agreed that Contractor will be treated as an independent individual contractor and not as an employee of MTC for federal tax purposes.

The aforesaid obligation of indemnity shall be construed so as to extend to all legal, defense and investigation costs, as well as all other reasonable costs, expenses and liabilities incurred by the party indemnified, from and after the time at which the party indemnified received notification (whether verbal or written) that a claim or demand is to be made or may be made. Contractor's obligation under this section does not extend to any liability caused by the sole negligence of MTC. This paragraph will survive the expiration or termination of this contract.

23. NOTICE OF DELAYS AND LABOR DISPUTES

Whenever Contractor encounters any difficulty that is delaying or threatens to delay the timely performance of this contract (including actual or potential labor disputes), Contractor shall immediately give notice thereof in writing to MTC, stating all relevant information with respect thereto. Such notice shall not in any way constitute a basis for an extension of the delivery schedule or be construed as a waiver by MTC of any rights or remedies to which it is entitled by law or pursuant to provisions of this contract. Failure to give such notice, however, may be grounds for denial of any request for an extension of the delivery schedule because of such delay.

24. AGENCY

The relationship created by this contract between the parties is that of vendor and vendee and neither party, nor any of its representatives, agents, or employees, have any right of authority to assume or create any obligation of any kind addressed to or intended for the other, nor to bind the other in any respect whatsoever. If any Force Majeure Condition occurs, the party delayed or unable to perform shall give immediate notice to the other party, and the party affected by the other's delay or inability to perform may elect to:

- A. Terminate this contract or the part of it relating to material not already shipped; or
